More notices...

Message in a Bottle Scheme - we now have available a stock of Lions International "Message in a Bottle Scheme" containers and wallets for those living alone. They contain details of essential information in the case of an emergency including details of your medication, allergies, people you nominate to be contacted, and your Doctor. The small plastic bottle is kept in your fridge with a sticker for the door and the small wallets can be kept with you when you are out and about. Emergency Services are briefed to look out for them. If you would like either or both please take them from the porch. If you are unable to access them contact Keith on 01895 672987 and he will deliver them to you.

New Email Address for Emma Taylor – please note the new email address which should be used for contacting Emma is tigger_emma@yahoo.com
Email to the families@stgileschurch.co.uk address is now being diverted to the church office.

Memory Café – the restarting of Memory Café on a once-a-month basis is being considered. We are looking for helpers who would be willing come and chat to people once a month – please contact Stephanie in the church office on 01895 622971 or office@stgileschurch.co.uk if you feel you can help.

Introductory Course on Pastoral Care – The Diocese are running the “Who Cares” course online during the autumn. This course is aimed at those already involved in pastoral care ministry as an excellent refresher or an introduction for those interested in becoming involved in this ministry. It will run via Zoom for 7 weeks from 5 October, covering subjects such as listening skills; visiting; prayer and pastoral care; the Bible and pastoral care; loss and bereavement; confidentiality and boundaries and the nature of pastoral care. The cost is £30 (to discuss the possibility of a church contribution to this fee please speak to Felicity before booking your place as this may only be available in certain circumstances.) Places can be booked via Eventbrite either through the Stepney Lives website, or the London Diocesan website. (Contact Stephanie in the office if you cannot find the link.)

Food for Thought - Come and enjoy a time of fellowship together – soup, a roll and a speaker; this Wednesday 6 October from 1.00 – 2.00 pm in the Oasis Café at Ickenham United Reformed Church. ‘Happy Retirement?’ Speaker – Frank Murphy. This is the first of the monthly meetings planned for the first Wednesday of each month. For this first event, please could those hoping to come let Shellie in the URC office know before the day either by phone on 01895 634280 or email ickurc@aol.com.

Bishop Ramsey School Open Evening for 2022 Year 7 intake – Thursday 7 October 5.30-8.30pm. Please note admittance is by ticket only in timeslots. See the poster in the porch for full details and tickets must be booked via Eventbrite at <https://bishopramseyopenevening2021.eventbrite.co.uk/> Please only attend if you have a child in Year 6.

Operation Christmas Child Shoebox Appeal – a collection is not being co-ordinated by the URC this year, but if you would still like to take part you can put together a shoebox of gifts for a child and drop it at a branch of the Entertainer Toy Shop (nearest one is in the Pavilions shopping centre in Uxbridge). Full info available on the Samaritan's Purse website at:

Livestreaming Sunday services – we are now live streaming 8am and 10.30 am Communion services. The live stream can be accessed via the church Youtube channel – see the red link button towards the bottom of the home page of the church website. Please be aware that if you attend a service that is being live streamed your image may appear on the live stream – we therefore require all those attending to sign our media release and consent form, and please also read our new filming in church privacy notice. If you have not already completed a form, these are available on entry into church or you can download them in advance from the home page of the church website. If you do not wish to sign the consent form and do not want your image to appear in the live stream please avoid sitting in the front two rows in church where your image will be picked up on camera. (Family Praise and All-age Service on the first Sunday of the month are not being live streamed.)
