People who are ill, in hospital or in need:

The family and friends of the recently departed.

Ann Ross

Those whose lives we remember at this time.

Frank Weller Peggy King Don Gwilt David Payne

The Missions & Charities we support. Hillingdon

Women's Centre. The Centre provides a safe space for all women regardless of background, race and sexual identity. Mainly they provide for those experiencing domestic abuse. They also work with women experiencing mental health difficulties, unemployment, isolation, and those needing legal and benefits advice. This is the only service of its kind in the local community.

More notices...

Thank you to the Bereavement Support Group for organising the Tree of Remembrance in the churchyard again this year – the stars were removed from the tree on Saturday 4 January and blessed at our services on Sunday 5 January.

A reminder that draft entries for the weekly news sheet need to be with Stephanie in the office by 10am on Thursday each week.

St Giles' Inhouse Safeguarding Training

Next Sunday 26 January, Pam Ash, our Parish Safeguarding Officer and I will be hosting St Giles' first Inhouse Safeguarding Training Session. We will meet in the Bernard Chapman Room, the small hall downstairs, at 12 noon, so you have a chance to grab a tea or coffee after the 10.30am service and join us for an hour of St Giles' specific safeguarding training.

This training is a requirement for all members of the PCC or those who work or volunteer regularly with children, young people or adults at risk at or for St Giles' Church, but is also open to anyone who wants to help lead the way in making St Giles' a safer community.

Can you please let Pam or I know you will be attending by emailing safeguarding@stgileschurch.co.uk or rector@stgileschurch.co.uk – Thank you. Christine

Thank you to Najla Matti for flowers in church this week in memory of her father Petrous Dawood.

Today Sunday 19 January – please note there will be no 10.30 service at St Giles' today as we join together with the URC for an 11am service at Ickenham URC for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. 8am Communion and 9.30am Family Praise will take place as usual today.

Thank you to everyone who donated to collections at our Christmas services. We have sent the following sums to the charities:

Crisis £462.36

Save the Children Gaza and Lebanon Appeal £364.75

Home-start Hillingdon £364.75

The Children's Society (Christingle) £86

Family Praise dates for the rest of this half-term are 19 and 26 Jan, (all-age on 2 Feb) & 9 Feb. There will then be a break for half-term on 16 Feb.

Donations for Flowers in Church - if you would like the flowers in church to be dedicated to a family member, please let the office know. We rely on donations for flowers to ensure we can keep the floral tributes in church. There will be no flowers in church during the Lent season (Sunday 9 March to Sunday 13 April inclusive) and we will be collecting donations for lilies on Easter Sunday as in previous years. Details to follow.

Thank you for everyone's wonderful help setting up and manning the CLICK Rukiga stall for the Ickenham Festive evening. It went really well! We had lots of interest, donations and fun around the game. Grand total of £254.90!!

More Intercessors Needed – we would love to hear from you if you would be prepared to join the team of people who lead intercessions at the 10.30 service. This is on a rota basis and would be no more than once every six months, and intercessions need be no longer than 3 minutes long. There are lots of resources available to help with preparation and members of the current team are happy to provide advice. Please speak to Christine or Stephanie if you can help.

Messy Cathedral - Saturday 15 February, 10.30am - 1pm at St Paul's Cathedral. Messy Cathedral is nearly here! Join us to learn more about peace and reconciliation as we reflect on the anniversary of the end of WWII. To book your free tickets go to <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/> and search for Messy Cathedral or ask Stephanie in the office for the link.

A reminder that we have a 10am Book of Common Prayer service every Thursday in church – this lasts approximately 35-40 minutes and is followed by tea/coffee and biscuits and all are very welcome.
